

Ezhumalai Pazhanisamy

proficient testing and commissioning engineer with more than 15 years of experience, specializing in power system protection. He has extensive expertise in commissioning the protection systems of several hydropower plants, thermal power plants, solar power plants, and process plants across India.

He worked on a variety of protection and SCADA systems. He is an expert in IEC61850 goosings for all relay manufacturers and integration with the SCADA system.

He commissioned the first 500kV transmission lines and substations for the Power grid of Laos at Nanbong. Hands-on expertise in troubleshooting and commissioning of power system protection, switchyard & switchgear equipment's in the oil and gas, pulp and paper sectors in Indonesia and Singapore.

Added experience in Operation & Maintenance of 225 MW Thermal Power Plant at Indonesia. He handled

Additional handling the power system protection training program on India, Malaysia, Indonesia ect.